Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 30-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are confusing in scope. The preamble of the claims appear to try to claim the safety anchor as a subcombination with the wall or the tether. The claim language, however, appears to claim the anchor in combination with the tether and the wall; claim 30 part (a) second paragraph line 2 “ the tether is coupled to the aperture”, paragraph (d) “ locking mechanismto securely hold ...the outer surface of the wall while securely holding the first...the inner surface of the wall when in the open position...sandwich the wall...members”. The claims are thus indefinite.

As the scope of the claims is unclear, the merit of the claims cannot be fairly examined and determined. The merit of the claims will be examined with respect to the art when the 112 issue to the scope of the claims is overcome.
